FORTRESS MONROE, July 11.

Several bloodthirsty attempts at murder and robbery have been lately nergetrated in the vicinity of Norfolk and Portsmonth by parties of negro highwaysien. The last was a farmer named Oakum. While on his way to Portsmouth, but five miles out, his wagon was stopped and he was set upon by two negroes, who siruck him in the head with heavy iron instrument, and, after indicting similar wounds about the body, they then robbed him of all his money and valuables and made their escape into the woods. Not long after the occurrence Mr. Oakum was picked up by socie persons he he neighborhood and narried to his home, where he now ites in a precarious condition. The authorities have started a posse in pursuit, and the most energetic measures have been taken to effect a capture of the villains.
